WELLES-NEIL.

Miss Vera Viola Welles, the beautiful young daughter of Major W. G. Welles, president of the DeSoto National Bank, was quietly married to Mr. William Alfred Neil, a prominent young business man of Atlanta, at the home of the bride's father this afternoon. Only the immediate members of the family were present at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. E. Trice. Immediately after they had become man and wife Mr. and Mrs. Neil left for the C. H. & N. depot, where they took the afternoon train for Jacksonville. There they will spend a few days before leaving for Chicago, from where they will proceed to Canada. After the honeymoon, which will last for several weeks, the young couple will return to Atlanta, where they will live. Mr. and Mrs. Neil expect to return to Arcadia for a few days' visit with relatives before permanently settling in their future home. The News joins with their many friends in congratulating them and in wishing for them a happy future.

IN HONOR OF MISS WELLES.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Ed. Welles gave a miscellaneous shower to Miss Vera Welles, who will be married to Mr. W. A. Neil tomorrow afternoon at the home of her father, Major W. G. Welles. There were about fifty-five guests present. Many gifts were showered upon the popular bride-to-be, among them being many articles of linen, silver and cut glass. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Welles served delicious refreshments of salad, ice cream and cake, and the guests, who had spent a very pleasant afternoon, after expressing many good wishes for the future bride, left for their homes.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Leslie Dishong Thursday afternoon, April 20th. Mrs. Bean led the devotional exercises. Mrs. Apple, being leader, took charge of the meeting. The subject for discussion was "Home Making." Mrs. Doescher read a paper on "Home Making and Not Home Keeping," showing that from many poorly kept homes and poor homes there can come many bright minds and good children, that mothers must not be too busy to try to interest their children in the higher things of life, to bring the highest results in their child's life.

Then the meeting was open for discussion, when so many beautiful thoughts were brought out. Mrs. H. E. Carlton spoke about family worship in the home, what a help and comfort it had been to them in their own home.

Mrs. Moore told of what literature should be in the home, and some she did not think proper to be there, followed by a very interesting discussion. Mrs. Smith read a beautiful paper on home amusements, showing parents should be very careful and prayerful in what amusements they should allow their children to indulge in.

Then card playing in the home was discussed, and several instances were shown where boys had been killed in card games, and also where boys had been after committing a murder and serving their time in the penitentiary were shown their mother's picture who cursed it and told them to take it back home to her for she, the mother, was the one that had taught her boy to play cards with her, so she could become more proficient to win one of the beautiful prizes offered at the afternoon card parties.

er, was the one that had taught her boy to play cards with her, so she could become more proficient to win one of the beautiful prizes offered at the afternoon card parties.

Mrs. Bell spoke of music in the home. Parents should be careful in the choice of music for their children.

Mrs. Cartwright gave a talk on the modern dress, which was very profitable, showing there was not so much over-dress as too little seen on the streets, and one's dress should be neat and modest. Then was related a piece read in a paper about a professor's daughter complaining to her mother about a certain boy saying something to her she thought he should not, and the mother went to the father and wanted him to interview the boy. The father called the daughter to him and told her when she would put more clothing on then he would protect her, but as long as she went on the street so, he could not.

Mrs. Hendry gave many beautiful thoughts on patience in the home.

Mrs. Ball gave a reading in her beautiful way, "Hopsy Burke," by Frank Westcott, which we all enjoyed so much.

Then followed a short business meeting, as the afternoon was far spent.

Mrs. Apple closed the program with prayer, after which the hostess served a delightful lunch of cake and punch. The meeting was then adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Livingston next month.

EASTER SERVICES AT THE CHURCH OF THE BROTHERS.

Over seventy-five attended the Sunday school at the Church of the Brothers yesterday and enjoyed the excellent program arranged by Mrs. C. H. Slifer and Mrs. S. W. Ball. The program consisted of drills, recitations, songs and scripture readings, with short talks by Rev. S. W. Ball, Ira Dredge, and C. H. Slifer. Every pupil on the program was present, and responded in a creditable manner.

The decorations under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Dredge, consisting of palm leaves forming arches over the windows and platform, ferns, carnations, geraniums, roses, in pots, and cut flowers of many kinds, including Easter lilies. The front of the platform was covered with palm leaves, intertwined with bougainvillea blooms.

This Sunday school is a little over a year old, and is steadily growing in numbers and interest, and being located in the eastern part of the city, makes it very convenient for those living near it. The attendance averages about sixty, and there are six classes.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The Bible school contest closed yesterday with the Blues in the lead. Both sides deserve much praise for the faithful work done. The friendly rivalry was most helpful, and we cordially welcome the new pupils, and hope they will enjoy their Bible study, and be greatly profited by their cooperation with the school for many years.

The Ladies' Aid meets this week with Mrs. W. E. Daniel, West end street, Tuesday at 3 p. m. Members and friends urged to be present. For report on business.

The cottage prayer meeting and Bible study service will be held this week, Wednesday evening, at 7:30 with Mrs. Waggoner, 237 North Volusia avenue. A cordial welcome to all.

The officers of the church extended an invitation to Minister Chester Sprague, of St. Petersburg, to spend Sunday, May 7th, with the church, with the view of permanently locating here. Mr. Sprague is a very fine man and a splendid preacher, and Arcadia will be very fortunate to locate such a man.

The Bible school will meet as usual next Sunday morning and adjourn early, so that all who desire will have the time to attend the address at the high school. There will be no preaching next Sunday morning on account of the commencement address. J. G. WAGGONER, Minister.

PICNIC AT LILY

BRIDGE MAY 19TH.

Everybody is invited to attend a DeSoto county basket picnic and public speaking at the bridge one-quarter mile from Lily postoffice on Friday, May 19th.

Hons. Park Trammell, W. V. Knott, Ion L. Farris and H. J. Drane have assured some of their friends that they would be present to speak, and we cordially invite every candidate on the county and state ticket to be present. Let everybody come.

CITIZENS OF LILY.

A DAY WELL SPENT AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH YESTERDAY

(From Monday's Daily.)

Pastor J. W. Vesey, of the First Baptist church, preached two splendid sermons yesterday, morning and evening. The morning topic was "Waiting Upon the Lord," the scripture lesson being from Isaiah 40th chapter. At the evening service Mr. Vesey took as his text, "There Is An Accursed

"Cured"

Mrs. Jay McGee, of Stephenville, Texas, writes: "For nine (9) years, I suffered with womanly trouble. I had terrible headaches, and pains in my back, etc. It seemed as if I would die, I suffered so. At last, I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and it helped me right away. The full treatment not only helped me, but it cured me."

TAKE

Cardui
The Woman's Tonic

Cardui helps women in time of greatest need, because it contains ingredients which act specifically, yet gently, on the weakened womanly organs. So, if you feel discouraged, blue, out-of-sorts, unable to do your household work, on account of your condition, stop worrying and give Cardui a trial. It has helped thousands of women,—why not you? Try Cardui. E-71

Thing in the Midst of Thee.

The day was a most beautiful one, and each of the services, including the services of the Sunday school, was a delightful inspiration. It was mission day for the Sunday school, and the roll call showed that 352 were present. There was a mission collection from the school of nearly $60.

While there was not a special Easter musical program arranged, yet the music was unusually well rendered, two beautiful anthems being presented, one at each of the services. The choir is fortunate in again having the leadership of Brother Grady Langford, and with the proper encouragement from all, he should soon have one of the best choirs to be had anywhere. Both of Pastor Vesey's sermons were full of wholesome instruction and profit.

TWO LOCAL MEN PASS SUCCESSFUL BAR EXAMINATION.

Mr. W. C. Langford and Mr. T. H. Jones have returned from Tallahassee, where they have been taking the bar examination before the Florida supreme court.

Both of them have received letters since returning home announcing the fact of their having passed the examination successfully, which should be a source of congratulation to each of them, since thirteen of the twenty-eight who took the examination failed to make a passing grade.

Mr. Jones had been practicing for some time before the Kentucky courts, but under the laws of Florida his Kentucky license could not be recognized until after he had practiced for a period of five years in another state. Both of these gentlemen will locate in this city for the practice of their profession. Mr. Langford is the present honored representative of DeSoto county, and candidate for reelection, while Mr. Jones is the youngest son of the editor of the Daily News.

STATE HEALTH OFFICER MAKING AN INSPECTION.

Dr. C. W. Bartlett, assistant to the state health officer, is in the city today making inspections in conformity with state sanitary laws, which require that all food products open and offered for sale, shall be adequately screened, also, that all surface toilets be tightly screened to prevent the entrance of flies. The inspection will be made monthly hereafter. The state health department hopes to secure the co-operation of the city council in this work, and urges the passage of an ordinance similar to the state law.

WHY NOT

Drop a word of cheer and kindness—Just a flash and it is gone; But there's half a hundred ripples Circling on and on and on, Bearing hope and joy and comfort On each splashing, dashing wave, Till you wouldn't guess the volume Of the one kind word you gave. —Selected.
